

“Before I Die...” Wall Use Agreement

Before I Die is a global public art project that invites people to reflect on their lives and share their personal aspirations in public space.” www.beforeidie.cc

Thank you for hosting our “Before I Die...” wall. This living and breathing art is an important opportunity to engage discussion in living well and dying well. We believe talking about dying helps us to fully live.

Please read and complete the agreement below. If you have any questions, please contact Britni Smith, Education Director at Clarehouse: bsmith@clarehouse.org or phone 918-893-6150.

1. Clarehouse will coordinate a schedule for wall hosting and arrange for delivery of the wall to the Host Organization as well as pick-up of the wall when the hosting period concludes.

Dates requested: _____

2. The Host Organization will provide at least 2 people to unload and load the wall at delivery and pick-up times.
3. The Host Organization will monitor the wall for profanity/obscenity and will remove inappropriate content immediately.
4. The Host Organization will photograph the panels as they fill up and forward photos and a brief written summary of the experience to bsmith@clarehouse.org upon completion of the hosting period.
5. As needed, the Host Organization will clean it with water and a soft cloth.
6. Host Organization will notify Clarehouse immediately of any needs, maintenance requirements or damage to the wall.
7. Host Organization will make every effort to tend to the wall to maintain a quality experience for the public.

Host Organization: _____ Date: _____

Representative Name: _____ Signature: _____

Clarehouse Representative: _____ Signature: _____